

Our Group Exemption is easier, quicker, and affordable

Advantages:

- Relief from laborious filing of your own application for Federal Exemption recognition - 501 (c)(3).
- Acknowledged as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- Possession of the same benefits as a “stand alone”.
- Access to unique benefits while expanding your network of connections and influence worldwide.

Other Benefits:

- A formal church 501 (c)(3) tax exemption provides grant funding eligibility for various outreach programs and efforts.
- Provides increased community credibility.
- In some cases hotel taxes waived.
- In some states, exemption from state income and sales taxes is automatically granted to groups that have been recognized as exempt by the IRS (however, in most states this requires organizations to apply for this exemption).
- Eligibility to receive donations that are tax deductible by their donors as charitable contributions.
- Special reduced postal rates for bulk mailings (requires an application to the US Postal Service).
- Eligibility for grants by public agencies and private charitable foundations.
- In some facilities, eligibility to rent space at below market rates.
